How Title 18 Code Compliance Works

Once your complaint is received, staff will investigate any violations visible from the public right of way. If the complaint is able to be observed by staff, the owner or tenant can be contacted by staff to inform them of the violation.

⚡ If the violation is not visible from the public right of way, further investigation and assistance is needed to prove the violation. The party submitting the complaint must be willing to publicly present evidence in the form of a log of times and dates in which the violations occur and photos or written evidence in municipal court if required.

% If there is enough evidence through observation and submitted evidence, the violator can be cited, however a citation will not be issued unless there is enough evidence of the violation.

Do you have any photographs or proof of this issue? If not, are you willing to collect proof?

What type of incident are you reporting?

- Household Limit
- Lighting
- Animals
- Signs
- Short Term Rentals

Please explain the issue. Include details such as time frames, times of day, and specific evidence of the violation from your perspective.
