On October 22, 2018, the Historic Preservation Board (HPB) reviewed their accomplishments for 2018 and then discussed their annual goals for 2019, prioritizing them into the list below.

2018 Accomplishments and Ongoing Projects:
- 10 residential surveys are being conducted for properties associated with the Territorial Capital.
- Consultant is in the final stages of putting together a first draft and final version of a Historic Preservation Plan.
- Guest Speaker: Meg Van Ness with U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service gave a presentation on significance and integrity
- The Board produced three articles that were published in the Golden Informer.
- HPB reviewed 11 cases for a Certificate of Appropriateness.

2019 Goals by Priority:
- Begin process for Territorial Capital District nomination
- Choose a specific location and properties for the 10 surveys which will be conducted in late 2019. Seek additional resources to increase the number of survey’s due to the creation of the new District in 2019
- Review and digest the Historic Preservation Plan, share a summary of the plan with City Council, identify next steps or select a few recommendations for actions
- Consider possible historic district for Goosetown. Review potential properties
- Best practices and board development: Invite guest speakers to help the board learn current historic preservation practices, and encourage members to attend Colorado Preservation Inc. conference in February and/or National Trust for Historic Preservation conference in October.

- Educational Outreach: Produce quarterly Informer articles related to historic preservation and/or historic sites.
- Review Golden’s historic preservation guidelines for currency and effectiveness
