On December 4, 2017, the Historic Preservation Board reviewed their accomplishments for 2016 and then discussed their annual goals for 2017, prioritizing them into the list below.

2017 Accomplishments and Ongoing Projects:
- 10 residential surveys are being conducted in the 12th Street Historic District and will be finalized in February 2018.
- Applied for a grant through History Colorado in order to help fund a Historic Preservation Plan.
- Discussed opportunities for future cooperation and planning efforts with Jeffco Open Space related to Welch Ditch preservation and trails.

2018 Goals by Priority:
- Discuss potential overlay district for territorial capital era buildings (29 of them).
- Continue to work with hired consultant to produce a Historic Preservation Plan.
- Any many HPB members as possible should attend the Saving Places Conference in February.
- Choose a specific location and properties for the 10 surveys which will be conducted in late 2018.
- Educational Outreach: Produce quarterly Informer articles related to historic preservation and/or historic sites.
- Authors & Guest Speakers: Invite informative guests to help educate the Board on current historic preservation practices.
- Discuss opportunities for future cooperation and planning efforts with Jeffco Open Space related to Welch Ditch preservation and trails.
• When appropriate, look for properties to potentially add to the Endangered Properties list.
